O R D E R

AND NOW, this 20th day of April 2023;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the motions for leave to file [ECF No. 264; ECF No. 265] are granted in part and denied in part.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in support of their motions for summary judgment and associated filings and oppositions thereto, all parties to this action may file any document containing material designated “Confidential” under the Protective Order [ECF No. 230] provisionally under seal using the following procedure:

A redacted document must be filed on the docket while an unredacted version of the same document must be emailed contemporaneously to Courtroom Deputy Samantha Castorina (Samantha_castorina@pawd.uscourts.gov) for filing. The seal as to any document filed provisionally under seal shall be automatically lifted unless the party that designated the material “Confidential” files a motion on or before May 5, 2023 seeking the continued sealing of any information it believes meets the standards set forth in In re

Avandia Mktg., Sales Pracs. & Prod. Liab. Litig., 924 F.3d 662 (3d Cir. 2019). If any such motion is filed, any opposing party must file a response by May 19, 2023.

This procedure applies to all parties and no further motions seeking leave need be filed at this stage of the proceedings.
